

Mosiah 4-6

You might want to watch the film "King Benjamin Addresses His People/ Mosiah 1-5/ Book of Mormon,"

These important chapters from the Book of Mormon are about the change of heart the people of King Benjamin felt. What brings a change of heart for you?

As members of Christ's church what causes you to make a change? Consider the times when you have been so moved that your daily walk was different. Write in your journal about your changes of heart and what prompted these effects.

After what the people had heard from their king in the previous chapters, now in Chapter 4 they were humbled, knew they needed mercy and forgiveness, and believed in Jesus Christ. Then because of their faith they were forgiven. Mosiah 4:3 says they also had peace of conscience. What would it mean to you to have peace of conscience? (Especially in these last days???)

Later in Mosiah 4 we read what we must do to gain eternal life. As you read through what one must do for salvation, what are you doing well, and how can you improve in other ways?

Near the end of Mosiah 4 in verses 29-30 we are cautioned. How can you improve your thoughts, words, and deeds?

We are asked in Mosiah 5:12-13 to remember Him. We must serve Him to know Him. How do you serve Him?

Read the last verse of Mosiah 5. I pray we may be valiant, serve others, and be a light for others. As we study and do His will, we'll find peace and happiness now and forever.

Love, Sister Stoddard
